

Review Mode

Last Modified on 08/09/2021 12:23 pm EDT

Students can use InQuizitive to effectively study and review for in-class discussions, quizzes, and exams. This page provides instructions on how to use InQuizitive for review and details how students can report suspected errors within problems.

Hide All Answers

How can I use InQuizitive to review my work and study for exams?

Click on your activity score at any time and you will be taken to a detailed activity report of your performance on an InQuizitive activity.

iqstudent@wwnorton.edu

Chapter 2. Rhythm and Meter: Musical Time

Page 13 Classify musical element.

Which term is used to describe music that moves without a strong sense of beat?

- A B C D E F G H I J K L M N
- O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z

Question Confidence
I think I know it

You can gain or lose up to 60 points on this question.

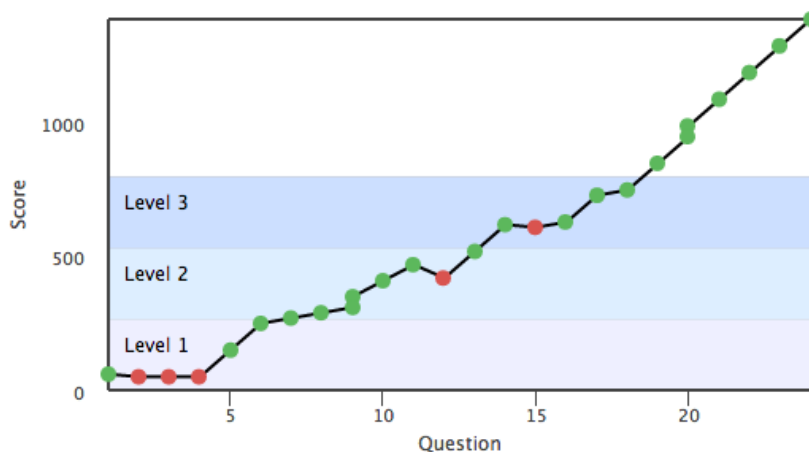

Activity Score
567

Current Grade
71%

✓ Your grade has been submitted

Question Help/Challenge

On your activity graph, green dots represent questions answered correctly and red dots represent questions answered incorrectly. You can click on the dots to review the questions.

On your learning objective report, you'll see a breakdown of how you're doing on each learning objective in the activity. Each learning objective's corresponding blue bar indicates how well you've performed. The longer the blue bar, the better you performed in that specific learning objective.

Learning Objective	Performance*
1. Points, Grades, and Levels
2. Confidence Ratings
3. Using InQuizitive for Test Review
4. Other InQuizitive Policies and Features

What do I do if I find an error in a question?

Don't get mad at us...we all make mistakes once in awhile!

If you feel a question is incorrect or unfair, click the "Question Help/Challenge" button.

The screenshot shows the InQuizitive interface. At the top left is the InQuizitive logo. The page title is "Chapter 2. Rhythm and Meter: Musical Time". The current page is "Page 12" with the instruction "Evaluate musical element." The question asks: "Which term best describes the meter of the song Tonight, from Bernstein's West Side Story?" Below the question is a video player for "Bernstein, Tonight" with a duration of 0:54. There are four answer options in yellow boxes: "consonant", "compound", "simple", and "simple". On the right side, there is a sidebar with four panels: "Question Confidence" (I think I know it, 60 points), "Activity Score" (563), "Current Grade" (71%, submitted), and a "Question Help/Challenge" button at the bottom, which is highlighted with a red arrow.

At the top of the screen, you will see directions on how to answer the type of question you were presented. If this information helped you to understand how to answer this question, click the "Try Again" button to close the window and return to the attempt to answer the question.

INQUIZITIVE

kdaloja@wnorton.com

Chapter 2: Research Methodology

Page(s) 63-65 2.4. How Are

Match the term with its meaning internal validity⁺ exte

construct validity⁺

Question Help
 Instructions: Drag each item on the left to its matching item on the right.

Submit a Challenge
 Still not sure how to answer the question? Or do you believe the question is incorrect or unanswerable? Briefly explain your concerns in the text box and submit. We'll redeem any points you lost on the question and investigate your challenge. We appreciate thoughtful feedback that helps us improve.

You may submit up to 3 challenges in each InQuizitive activity.

Back to Question Submit Challenge variable rather than to confounds.

A study's findings can be generalized.

Question Confidence
 I think I know it

You can earn 30 points by answering correctly now.

Activity Score
 (View Activity Report)

0

Current Grade
 0%

You must answer at least 19 more questions to receive a grade.

Show Feedback

Question Help/Challenge

If you think the question is unfair or incorrect, provide an explanation for why the question is faulty and any points lost on the question will be returned to you and a new question will be shown. In addition, question challenges are reported to Norton media editors who will quickly address the issues.

Note: You can submit a challenge three times per activity.