

Getting Started with Norton Testmaker

Last Modified on 04/28/2021 1:34 pm EDT

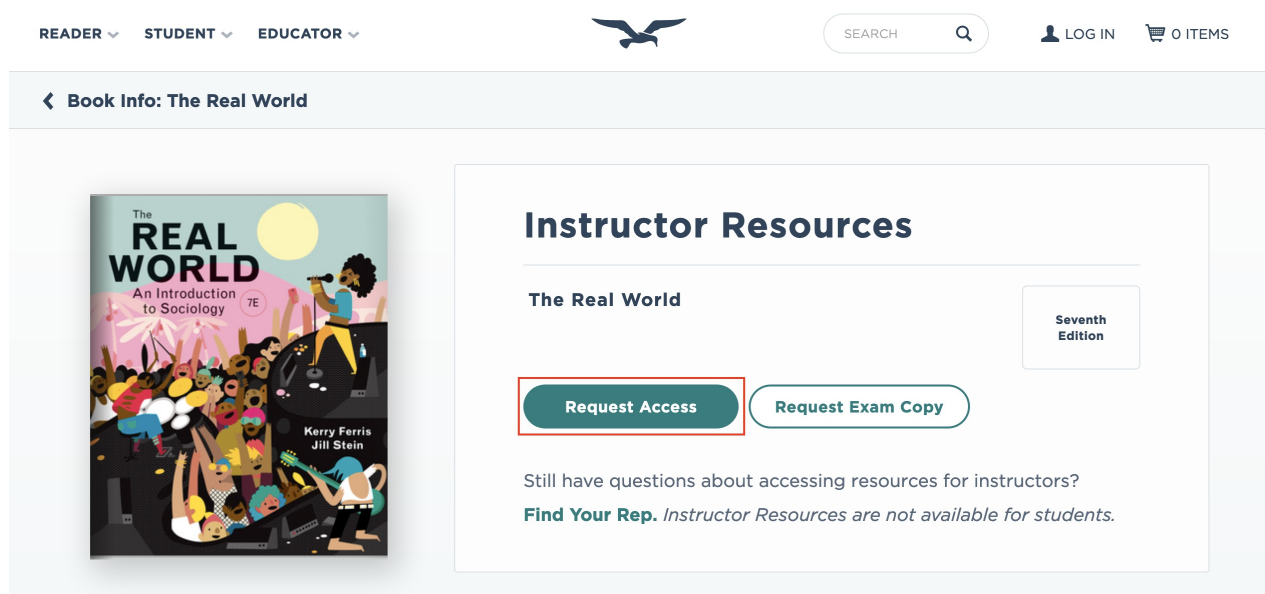

Norton Testmaker is Norton's online assessment-building software. Norton Testmaker lets you create tests, quizzes, and exams from Norton test bank questions.

Getting access

To secure the integrity of test bank questions, Norton Testmaker is only available to verified instructors. You must have a verified and active Norton instructor account to access Norton Testmaker.

If you do not have a verified instructor account, please click the "Request Access" button in the Instructor Resources page for your book. You can use the Norton website's search engine or catalog pages to find your Instructor Resources. For more information, visit <https://wnorton.com/educator>

After clicking "Request Access," you will be guided through the application process.

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar with links for READER, STUDENT, and EDUCATOR, a search bar, and a shopping cart icon. Below the navigation is a breadcrumb trail: < Book Info: The Real World. The main content area features the book cover for 'The REAL WORLD: An Introduction to Sociology, 7E' by Kerry Ferris and Jill Stein. To the right of the cover is the 'Instructor Resources' section, which includes the title 'The Real World' and 'Seventh Edition'. Two buttons are visible: 'Request Access' (highlighted with a red border) and 'Request Exam Copy'. Below the buttons, there is a message: 'Still have questions about accessing resources for instructors? Find Your Rep. Instructor Resources are not available for students.'

If you have other questions about getting access to Instructor Resources, you can also find and contact your Norton representative at <https://wnorton.com/find-your-rep>
